(i) To provide for the spiritual and practical needs of the Sanctuary through the founding of social groups, buildings, retreats, universities, and gathering places; and to strive at all times to provide assistance through works of charity and a storehouse to those in need of material help; to minister as well to the spiritual needs of all children of God:

(j) To promote an interest in knowledge and application of historical and scientific principles of energy fields as related to spiritual, physical, and ecological approaches to natural living and the divine plan for this planet:

(k) To prepare those accepted into membership for counselling, guiding, serving, teaching, and generally ministering to the needs of the members and for stewardship on this planet:

(l) The aims and objects shall be summed up in the following quotations: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, soul, mind, and strength, and thy neighbour as thyself"; "And every man shall sit under his own vine and fig tree and no man shall make him afraid."—Micah 4:4; "To serve is noble. If you help one soul you justify your existence. There is work to do—to heal bodies and souls—of all those beings who have been exploited and suffered needlessly through ignorance and greed. 'Thou hast endowed us with gifts that we may use them in service to comfort mourners, heal the sick, give guidance to those who have lost their way—and thus help them to live in the sunlight of spiritual freedom.'" "This is the prayer of Thy Indian servant who seeks always to serve."—Silver Birch; and the functions of the Society shall include the laying-on of hands, healing by prayer and spiritual means, and the balancing of energies by all natural means:

(m) To ordain ministers where accredited to minister, counsel, and guide, and perform other such duties as may accrue to them under the laws of society or the regulations of this church:

(n) Our Kwi-tsi-tsa-las Spiritual Sanctuary and its teaching arm, the Kwi-tsi-tsa-las Herb Seminar Organization, shall be set up for those who are interested in Indian religious belief and knowledge, human and animal anatomy and physiology, world ecology, ancient and traditional herbal healing, basic cellular function, and in the energies of this strange and wonderful sea of life in which we find ourselves surrounded by the even more wonderful mysteries of the nonliving world, the energies found in rocks and rivers and in the very soil particles, and air molecules that support us all; what does the future hold? Who or what will survive? What will be the manner and mode of life in the future? What part will and should man play in the future in the balance of nature? What is the inter-relationship between the beautiful energies of the healing herbs and the healthful balance of energies in a living being, be it a four-legged creature or a two-legged creature? Our Sanctuary and its teaching arm are based on ancient Indian philosophy beliefs and knowledge; the Indian's beliefs were his way of life and he respected nature, and loved the works of the Creator.

CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS ACT

No. 922 (Co-op.)

I HEREBY CERTIFY that Dome Co-operative Housing Society, incorporated on the 23rd day of October 1973 under Certificate 922 (Co-op.), has, pursuant to the Co-operative Associations Act, altered its objects by amending paragraph 3 of the memorandum of association to read as follows:

(a) The objects for which the Association is formed are: (i) To promote continuing co-operative housing associations, co-operative building groups, and generally to promote improvements to housing conditions in British Columbia; (ii) to provide housing accommodation of any class or kind for persons, at least the majority of whom are members of the Association, who will occupy the housing accommodation otherwise than as owners and who, if members of the Association, have subscribed for shares of the Association equivalent to the capital value of the unit of accommodation which they occupy or intend to occupy, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, for that purpose, to own and to buy, sell, lease, exchange, acquire, and dispose of, and to construct, renovate, remodel, and repair, and to operate, manage, and maintain lands, buildings, and chattels for residential purposes and uses, ancillary thereto for members and other persons to whom the Association provides or intends to provide housing accommodation; (iii) subject to the Co-operative Associations Act, to enter into partnership or joint ventures with, to lend money to, to guarantee or become surety for the indebtedness or obligations of any corporation organized on a co-operative or nonprofit basis:

The objects specified in each paragraph hereof shall in no way be limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Association and the Association shall have, as ancillary and incidental, powers those granted by the Co-operative Associations Act as may be amended from time to time:

(b) Save as herein provided, (i) no part of the income of the Association shall be payable to or otherwise available for the personal benefit of any proprietor, member, or shareholder of the Association; (ii) no part of the assets or property of the Association may be paid or distributed to the members of the Association during the existence of the Association or upon a winding-up or dissolution; (iii) no dividend shall be paid by the Association in respect of shares:

(c) The Association, upon a person ceasing to occupy housing accommodation provided by the Association, may pay to that person (i) the amount paid on account of shares of the Association; (ii) the amount which bears the same ratio to the amount paid on account of shares of the Association as the amount of any increase of the Canadian City Average of the Consumer Price Index of Statistics of Canada or any successor or substituted index or agency (the "Consumer Price Index") from the date on which the person commenced to occupy housing accommodation, pursuant to his lease to the first day of the month immediately preceding the date of the person's application to withdraw from membership in the Association, bears to the Consumer Price Index on the date on which the person commenced to occupy housing accommodation provided by the Association; if the form, basis, or method of reporting of the Consumer Price Index shall be changed so that any calculation under this clause (ii) cannot be made on a consistent basis then there may be substituted for the Consumer Price Index an index certified by the auditor of the Association to be an adequate and consistent basis for the calculation of the amount permitted to be paid under this clause; (iii) the actual cost, less depreciation, as determined by the directors of the Association at the date of the person ceasing to occupy a unit of housing accommodation provided by the Association, of approved improvements to the unit of housing accommodation occupied by the person to an amount not exceeding 10 per cent of the value of the unit, as determined by the directors of the Association at the date the person ceases to occupy the unit of housing accommodation:

(d) The Association may make (i) an allocation in proportion to patronage in relation to the amount paid for housing accommodation provided by the Association so long as such allocation is made at the same rate in relation to the amount paid for housing accommodation to all persons who paid rent to the Association in proportion to the amount of rent so paid by the persons without regard to whether those persons are members of the Association or not; (i) a distribution of surplus by way of an adjustment or reduction of rental paid or payable with respect to accommodation provided by the Association so long as the distribution is made to all persons in the same proportion as rent is paid or payable by those persons for the accommodation, without regard to whether those persons are members of the Association or not:

(e) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the Association from paying any bona fide indebtedness and interest thereon to any proprietor, member, or shareholder:

(f) (i) No payment made by the Association to a member, whether by way of allocation in proportion to patronage, by way of payment of any indebtedness, or otherwise, shall be made by way of issue of shares of the Association to the member; (ii) no payment by a member to the Association, by way of rent or for services, shall be credited, in whole or in part, on account of the purchase of shares of the Association.
